

Makin' Money

Open up the doors
New territory to explore
So when does a man realise
Just what he needs
Move along in life
Think of all the things you should've had
But the long lost ambitions
Sowed the seeds

Daydreams like movie scenes
In a car as long as a train
But every hour of your day's
Devoted entirely to one thing
That's makin' money

Seems like it the same old scene
Makin money
Live your life inbetween

On a distant shore
The new religion's holdin' onto more
So how does a man compromise
His head for his heart
Staring at the sun
Someone elses dream you should've won
So many years in the makin'
If you could just make a start

Daydreams like magazines
Where everyone all knows your name
But every hour of your day's
Devoted entirely to one thing
That's makin' money

Seems like it the same old scene
Just makin money
Live your life inbetween

Daydreams like movie scenes
In a car as long as a train
But every hour of your day's
Devoted entirely to one thing
That's makin' money

Seems like it the same old scene
Makin money
Live your life inbetween

Just the same old scene
Livin' your life inbetween
Just livin' your life inbetween
Livin' your life inbetween
Just like the rest of us all
