

Mister Shadow

You know you walk you talk, you tell her all your dreams
All the things you've done, and what they mean
Oh, I played that game a hundred times, or maybe more
You roll the dice it's easy, you go through your moves
Drives me crazy, cause I'm just so lazy
And I get swept along on it, like I don't have a care

And before you know, you're callin'
As you'd barely shut the door
Even when the voice inside you seems unsure

There's gotta be more than this, more than this inside
There's gotta be more than this, to start a love alive
When the cloud hangs on this town
And Mister Shadow will bring you down
He fades away when the daylight comes around

You know your path's been laid, along the same old way
Sing the blues, or live it for today
But I'm just another passenger, lookin' for the door
Whoever said it's easy, just to feel alive
I know it's crazy, cause it's all so hazy
But I'll just go along with it, like I don't have a care

And before you know, you're callin'
As you'd barely shut the door
Even when the voice inside you seems unsure

There's gotta be more than this, more than this inside
There's gotta be more than this, to start a love alive
When the cloud hangs on this town
And Mister Shadow will bring you down
He fades away when the daylight comes around

There's gotta be more than this, more than this inside
There's gotta be more than this, to start a love alive
When the cloud hangs on this town
And Mister Shadow will bring you down
He fades away, he fades away

When the cloud hangs on this town
And Mister Shadow will bring you down
He fades away when the daylight comes around

Oh, it's all so crazy
To feel alive
Oh, it's all so crazy
To feel alive
There's gotta be more
